

Electronic Seminar on Mathematics Education

TPSE's Top ten things every online instructor should do

Abbe Herzig, Director of Education, AMS

Dave Kung, Dir. of Strategy & Implementation, TPSE

Because of the coronavirus, mathematics faculty are transitioning to teaching online. To help us all deliver the best learning experience, TPSEMath* has drafted a list of the key strategies that every online course should incorporate. We will describe those strategies, and solicit reactions and feedback in the discussion.
